Current Georgia state government employees will be subject to State Personnel Board rule provisions.

The Georgia Division of Family and Children Services (DFCS), a division of the Georgia Department of Human Services, investigates reports of child abuse; finds foster and adoptive homes for abused and neglected children; issues SNAP, Medicaid, TANF and childcare assistance to low-income families; helps out-of-work parents get back on their feet; and provides numerous support services and innovative programs to help families in need.

DFCS is working to implement significant child welfare reform through the Blueprint for Change plan, which is the Division's roadmap to improving the lives of the children and families we serve. It is about strong practice, a committed workforce and the authentic internal and external engagement with our staff and the community. The Blueprint for Change has three pillars:

- Practice Model: Adoption of a practice model that will serve as the foundation to keep kids safe and strengthen families; and inclusion of guiding principles, vision and mission statement.
- Robust Workforce Development: Increased staffing and expertise for Child Welfare and Family Independence; research-based caseload ratios; mentoring for supervisors; improved compensation based on proven competency; and development of a career path.
- Constituent Engagement: Creation of advisory boards at state, regional and local levels; organized "roadshows" to engage the public, local stakeholders and media; and build consensus and collaboration among partners, staff, and stakeholders.

DFCS is seeking candidates for the position of Social Services Specialist 3 (Social Services Case Manager 3) - Adoptions. GEORGIA ON MY MIND: It Doesn't Get Any Better Than This!

Georgians enjoy a quality of life that would be hard to find in any area across the nation. Lower taxes and a lower cost of living enable you to do more with the money you make and maintain a higher standard of living.

Within Georgia you will find an unlimited supply of recreational and cultural opportunities. Enjoy boating, camping, fishing, golf, hiking, picnicking, swimming, tennis or just relaxing against Georgia's many scenic backdrops. Georgia is a 57,906 square-mile playground filled with natural beauty and immaculate resources. From the mountains to the coast from ballet to baseball, Georgia offers you a livability and quality of life that can help you achieve your dreams.

You're Really Going to Like Chattahoochee County

Situated in a tranquil sea of rolling hills, Chattahoochee County is one of three counties that comprise West Georgia's largest MSA, the Columbus, Alabama MSA. The county seat is Cusseta, Georgia which was organized in 1854. Chattahoochee is a community where you can live in the country, and yet close enough to enjoy city life as well. It is a place where southern hospitality abounds and a person's handshake is as good as their word.

Fort Benning, home of the US Army Infantry, covers an estimated 80 percent of the county's 249 square miles. The uniqueness of Chattahoochee County is being able to offer the best of both worlds. Due to Chattahoochee County's proximity to Columbus, Georgia, it can offer country living while being only minutes away from the finest of big city amenities.
